

The Jefferson Symphony Orchestra

Dr. William Morse, Music Director and Principal Conductor

NEWS RELEASE

February 5, 2011

Media Contact: Cher Pascoe
Direct: 303.232.8161, cher@InspireStrategyLLC.com

Music for Romance

Co-sponsor: Gene Bauer Goldsmith

Sunday, February 20, 2011, 3 p.m.
The Green Center, Colorado School of Mines, 16th and Cheyenne Streets, Golden

Tickets may be purchased online at www.JeffSymphony.org.

The 75-member Jefferson Symphony Orchestra (JSO) will be presenting Music for Romance:

Concerto for Clarinet and Orchestra	Carl Nielsen (1865-1931)
Symphony No. 2, Op. 27, in E minor	Sergei Rachmaninoff (1873-1943)

Special Guest Artist: Gregory Dufford, Clarinetist

Gregory Dufford has performed with many of the world's finest opera singers including Luciano Pavarotti, Placido Domingo, Kiri Te Kanawa and Mirella Freni. Mr. Dufford's performing experience goes well beyond the opera stage to include 13 years as Principal Clarinetist with one of America's most respected contemporary music ensembles, the San Francisco Contemporary Music Players.

Gregory Dufford performed with and was a founding member of several highly regarded chamber music ensembles in the San Francisco Bay Area. He has served on the music faculty of Metropolitan State College of Denver and currently holds the position of Visiting Assistant Professor of Clarinet.

Continuing the Spirit of Romance

- Drawing for a ¼ ct certified diamond ($750 retail) from Gene Bauer Goldsmith
- Fine wine silent auction
- Drawing for additional romantic gifts

JSO delivers 5 regular concerts and 2-3 summer concerts each year under the direction of Dr. William Morse, Music Director and Principal Conductor.

Tickets

Adult	$17	College student	$10
Senior (62+)	$15	K-12 student	$ 5

Group rates available for 10 or more