

Jefferson Symphony Orchestra Your Favorite Overture Contest Rules

The Jefferson Symphony Orchestra will be playing “Your Favorite Overture” at its April 7, 2024 concert. The “Your Favorite Overture” to be played at that concert and will be determined as follows:

A list of 10 overtures from which the winner will be selected will be distributed to potential voters at such time as they are eligible to vote either through email or on the JSO web site at www.jeffsymphony.org.

Jefferson Symphony Association members, i.e., JSO season ticket holders, JSO orchestra musicians who have performed in 3 of the last 5 JSO regular season concerts, and JSA Board members will get one “free” vote as to which overture will be played at the April 7, 2024 concert during the period from November 2, 2023 through December 9, 2023. Any “free” votes cast after December 9, 2023 will not be counted.

All persons, including those who have “free” votes above will be allowed to “vote” for their “Favorite Overture” from the list of 10 by donating $10.00 per vote to the Jefferson Symphony Association during the period from December 10, 2023 through February 11, 2024.

Voting results will be posted weekly on Fridays on the JSO web site from December 11, 2023 through February 2, 2024 at which time the voting results will be “Blacked Out” until the close of voting on February 11, 2024. Voters will be able to “see” where the voting stands as of February 2, 2024 on the JSO web site and will be allowed to cast additional “votes” with a $10 donation to JSO until February 11, 2024. The winning Overture will be determined by all votes cast through February 11, 2024

The Overture receiving the most total votes, “free” and paid, per the above from the list of 10 will be determined and announced at the April 7, 2024 Jefferson Symphony Orchestra concert and played by the JSO at the April 7, 2024 concert.